

Promotional Review

Lucky Winners — Winners of the two 10-speed bicycles that were given away as the grand prizes in Saturday's ping pong drop were Tanya Blowers, 9, of Rensselaer, and Deanna Walters, 4, of West Berne. Schoharie Promotional Association President Jim Getman presented the winners with their new bikes.

Turkey winners from a turkey shoot April 7 at Rickard Hill Farms, Schoharie are: Paul Berard, Cobleskill; Arthur Ruland, Floyd Guernsey, Midge Lawyer, Fred Vamosy, Helen Mann, Catherine Santos, and Fay Barton, all of Schoharie.

The turkeys weighed about 14 pounds and were presented by coordinators Martin Shrederis and Henry Mulbury.

ATTENTION: HOMEOWNERS OF THE TOWN AND VILLAGE OF SCHOHARIE

Help Make Schoharie More Beautiful!

Enter Schoharie Promotional Association's EARLY FALL GARDEN CONTEST to be held in conjunction with our annual GARAGE AND CRAFT FAIR, September 9, 1989.

Three Cash Prizes of $25.<sup>00</sup> each awarded for the garden that is:

- (1) Most Beautiful
- (2) Most Effective in the Use of Flowers
- (3) Most Original

Criteria for Garden - Must be outdoors, on any side of house (no specific dimensions). Garden should be composed mostly of real flowers, yet some plants and bushes will be acceptable.

How to Enter, Judging and Announcement of Winners

Each entrant must complete the form below, which must be received no later than Saturday, August 19th. Judging: Saturday, August 26th. Prizes awarded on Saturday, September 9th in downtown Schoharie.

GARDEN CONTEST ENTRY FORM

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

TELEPHONE _____

Mail to: Paul Piela, Box 303, Schoharie, New York 12157. Additional entry forms and information may be secured at most places of business in the Village of Schoharie or from Paul Piela, 295-7174.

TIMES-JOURNAL, AUGUST 22, 1990-7

Small gardener—Betty Licari, center, accepts a check from Schoharie Promotional Association President Cappy Santos, left, and Flower Garden Contest chairman Paul Piela.

Betty and Jim Licari were judged to have the best small flower garden in the Promotional Association's second annual summer flower garden contest.

Other winners (not available for photos) were Ed Eilers and Robert Mock medium garden and Mildred Vroman, large garden.

Association officials said they may expand the contest next year to honor more gardeners for their efforts and may move the judging up to July.

Pool donation — James Getman, president of the Schoharie Promotional Association, right, presents $200 to Peter Lopez for the Schoharie pool construction fund. This marks the second time the association has contributed to the pool fund. The association sponsors and hosts many events in Schoharie, most recently the Easter egg hunt for youngsters. The group's next meeting is on Tuesday in the Schoharie Firehouse at 7:30 pm; the public is invited.

Accepts Donation — Schoharie High School Band Director Mark Pracher, left, receives a $100 check from Paul Piela of the Schoharie Promotional Association. The donation will help the band purchase new uniforms.